

Civil War Veterans Buried in Fairfax County and the Cities of Fairfax and Falls Church, Virginia

Created by members of Fairfax County Cemetery Preservation Association (FCCPA) to commemorate the Civil War Sesquicentennial. The FCCPA is a non-profit organization whose mission is to protect and preserve the hundreds of family cemeteries of Fairfax County. Many of these cemeteries are abandoned, neglected, vandalized and/or threatened by development.

Acknowledgments

A historical compilation like this could not have been done without the contributions of many people throughout the years. Foremost, FCCPA is indebted to:

- Suzanne Levy, recently retired librarian of the Virginia Room of the Fairfax County Public Library for sharing her historical knowledge and for guidance in accessing the library’s extensive Civil War and cemetery records
- William Page Johnson, II, author of Brothers and Cousins: Confederate Soldiers and Sailors of Fairfax County, Virginia
- Brian A. Conley, Asst. Fairfax County Archivist and author of Cemeteries of Fairfax County, Virginia
- Confederate Dead Monument, City of Fairfax Cemetery, dedicated in 1890 by the Confederate Monument Association to remember the Fairfax County men who fought and died in the war, including 200 unknown Confederate soldiers who are buried under the monument. This compilation includes the 95 veterans whose names appear on the monument. Of these, 86 are buried elsewhere or their gravesites are unknown. Visit the cemetery’s website <http://www.fairfaxva.gov/cemetery/Cemetery.asp> for information about the monument and the full list of Civil War veterans memorialized there.
- The contributors to findagrave.com for providing valuable online reference information and documentation of many of our area cemeteries and gravesites
- Members of our database committee led by John Browne, Dayle Dooley, Mary Lipsey, and Ruth and Don Williams

Disclaimer: FCCPA volunteers have contributed countless hours and extraordinary effort to create this database. Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy. It is accurate to the best of our knowledge. We do not claim that this database is complete. We would appreciate any corrections or suggested additions. Please contact FCCPA at <http://www.honorfairfaxcemeteries.org/>

Contact Us: If you have any questions, corrections, or additions, please contact FCCPA through our website: www.honorfairfaxcemeteries.org. We would appreciate source information and/or documentation for any additions or corrections.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. Why was the database created?

The database was created for several reasons:

- a. a mission of the Fairfax Cemetery Preservation Association is to educate the public about the county's over four hundred cemeteries
- b. the nation is commemorating the Civil War Sesquicentennial
- c. we wanted to honor our Civil War veterans

2. Why weren't Civil War veterans, whose burial spots are unknown, included?

We are highlighting the cemeteries in our county, by focusing on the burials of and memorials to the veterans interred there.

3. Why were Fairfax City and Falls Church City included with Fairfax County?

During the Civil War and through half of the 20th century, both localities were part of Fairfax County.

Regarding other adjacent communities, Washington, DC returned land to Virginia before the Civil War. From that land the City of Alexandria was rechartered and Alexandria County (later named Arlington County) was formed.

4. Why are there so few Union soldiers included in the database?

Virginia was a Confederate state. Some, but relatively few, county residents served in the Union forces. Many of the Union veterans in the database settled in Fairfax County after the war.

5. Where are the men buried who died on the battlefields?

Most of them are buried at national cemeteries near the battlefields; for example, Gettysburg National Cemetery, Alexandria National Cemetery, and Culpeper National Cemetery. Fredericksburg National Cemetery has 15,243 Union soldiers in the cemetery with only 2,473 identified.

6. Why are so many burials unknown?

There are several reasons, including:

- a. thousands were buried very quickly at the battlefield
- b. the soldiers were not provided with permanent identification markers like today's dog tags
- c. armies were on the move
- d. accurate records were not kept of men who died as prisoners or in hospitals

7. What efforts were made to identify the dead after the war?

In 1865, the US Quartermasters Department disinterred Union soldiers from farmland and reburied them in national cemeteries, such as Arlington. The National Archives has the quartermaster's ledgers indicating the original burial location and where the soldier was buried at Arlington Cemetery. Once again, many of these are labeled as Unknown. The Roll of Honor is a series of volumes compiling these records. Also from 1865-1869, Clara Barton and her friends aided Americans in finding missing soldiers. Barton received over sixty thousand letters requesting help in finding a missing loved one. Through their efforts, 22,000 missing soldiers were located.

8. What types of records did you use to create the database?

Our first choice was primary sources when possible. Military records were easier to locate than burial records. Please check our Bibliography and Useful Links sections for further details on sources used.

9. How can one make additions or corrections to the database?

Please contact FCCPA through our website at www.honorfairfaxcemeteries.org. We would appreciate source information and/or documentation.

10. Are there plans to expand the database to include other localities?

No, we do not have any such plans at this time.

11. Does the database include ALL the Civil War veterans who were buried in Fairfax County?

The database includes those whose records were located. There are many graves in Fairfax County which are not marked.
