pg. 99

Birth: 1818 Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Plot: N/A Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional Information: Churchill was enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 29. Not much more is recorded about Churchill, but he did get court-martialed on 10/20/1847. The charge he received was for "Sleeping On Post". He pled guilty to this charge, but made the following remarks in his defense: "I was not detailed for guard till 7 o'clock in the evening and went on post immediately. I went on picket after being relieved, between 9 & 12 o'clock and had been drinking during the day." The court found him guilty, and forced him to forfeit one month's pay, continue his usual duties, and perform company police duty for one month. Again, Churchill was court-martialed one month later on 11/20/1847, in Buena Vista, Mexico. He was charged with Desertion because he tried leaving around the 12th of November, 1847 from Saltillo, Mexico and his company station. pg. 112

Birth: 1828 Death: 01/25/1873 Burial: Mount Olivet Cemetery, Washington D.C., District of Columbia. Plot: N/A

Memorial ID: 5143604

Additional Information: William T. Dantt enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 19. A Bounty Land Warrant was granted to William L. Dantt, Washington City, D.C. After serving in the war, Dantt was very active in terms of occupations. He served in the Civil War and was the President's Mounted Guard under Captain Samuel W. Owen in Washington, D.C. in 1861. He then became a grocer in 1863, then a carpenter in 1865, and then went back to being a grocer from 1869 onwards. Additionally, William Dantt's last name may actually be Dant because his marriage record with Sarah E. Watson, whom he married on March 13th, 1849, indicates such and names at the time were not standardized. Below is their marriage record from the National Archives. According to Dantt's Findagrave description, he was the son of Thomas E. and Martha B. Outteridge. While Dantt originally married Sarah E. Watson, their marriage didn't last and Dantt found a second wife named Mary Ann. After divorcing Mary Ann, he married a woman named Mary Ellen and they had a son. He later went on to die of smallpox, along with his infant son and Mary Ellen.

John Thomas Day

Birth: 05/21/1828, Calvert County, Maryland Death: 07/20/1893 (maybe born on the 30th according to other sources) Burial: Chestnut Grove Cemetery, Herndon VA

Plot: N/A

Memorial ID: 17129114

Additional Information: John Thomas Day was enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 20. He was the son of Robert and Mary Day, and was born in Calvert County, MD. By 1850, and possibly before the Mexican American War started, Day went to medical school. In 1860, Day resided in Fairfax County, VA, and was working as a physician, and is described as "corpulent, weighing approximately 275 pounds" and having blue eyes. Another patient of his described him as "tall and straight with iron-gray hair and beard. He drove a span of horses with several dogs barking at their heels." John Thomas Day cared for patients from Dranesville to Langley, and his brother (who was also a physician) worked south and west of Dranesville. John Thomas Day married a woman named Elizabeth Stanford. Day was a supporter of succession and voted for it on 4/23/1861 in Dranesville Fairfax County, VA. Dr. Jack, as most people referred to John Day, noted him as being friendly, allowing people who could not afford treatments upfront to pay in installments or even barter. In fact, Private William Robey, as seen in this document, was treated by John Day in 1867 for two days and paid his bill in three installments over the span of eight years. However, he had a hatred for Union men and murdered some in Fairfax County, which landed him in Old Capitol Prison, Washington D.C. It is said that he made an 18 inch knife to use in order to cut out Union men's hearts; specifically, according to an article about the Day brothers by Barbara Glakas, John Day and others "were accused of seeking out and attacking four Union pickets in the vicinity of Lowes Island, about six miles north of Herndon. Two of the Union pickets ended up being killed. Recounted from statements on the General Records of the Department of State, one woman reported that William Day [John's brother] had stripped the clothes off of the dead bodies, boasted about having taken them from the 'damn Yankees' and gave the clothes to his own slaves. John Day was reported to have sent a man named Jimmy back to bury the two stripped dead men; Jimmy later reported that he buried one man but the other had already been 'eaten up' by hogs. Yet another man stated that William Day was 'the most bitter secessionist in the neighborhood, that he has been particularly active and influential in the persecution of Union men.' Another resident said William Day attempted to gather men to form a company to go to Bull Run. When one man expressed reluctance about going, Dr. Day responded that if he did not go 'that he would have me, dead or alive.' Still another resident reported that Dr. William Day had used his influence in favor of the rebellion and said, 'In my opinion, Wm. B. Day had done more against the Union than any other man in town.'"

John Day and his brother were arrested on 11/27/1861 for the alleged killing and robbery of federal soldiers at Lowes Island. There, William and John feared for their lives because they heard carpenters hammering and making noise, and assumed that a gallows was being built to hang the two of them, so John often loudly prayed out of hope to avoid being hanged. John Day was eventually released after he took an oath of allegiance to the United States, and William Day was let out in 1862 as a prisoner exchange, though his charges were never fully proven. Despite these charges, in 1892, John Day became the first elected treasurer to the Fairfax County Medical Society. Additionally, he founded St. Timothy's Episcopal Church in Herndon, VA and after his death, a stained glass window was added in memory of him. He died of heart disease in Dranesville Fairfax County VA, and his funeral featured both an Episcopalian service and a Masonic Ritual, and had many attendees.

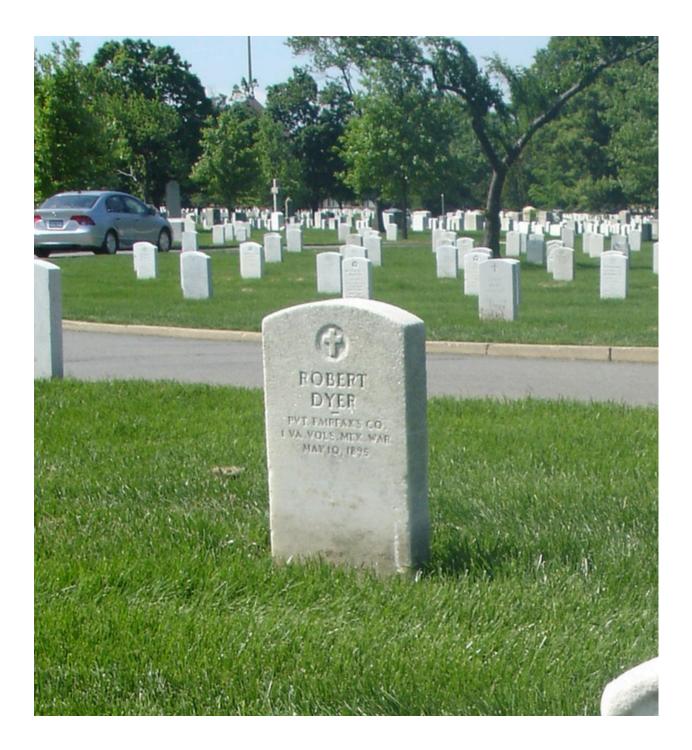

DEATH OF A PHYSICIAN.—Dr. John T. Day, a well-known physician in the country surrounding this city, died suddenly at his home in Dranesville Thursday night. He had suffered from heart trouble for some time.

Robert N. Dyer

Birth: 02/22/1827
Death: December 23, 1890 OR May 10, 1895 (as listed on Findagrave)
Burial: Arlington Cemetery, Arlington County, VA, USA.
Plot: Section 13 Site 12503

Memorial ID: 36978693

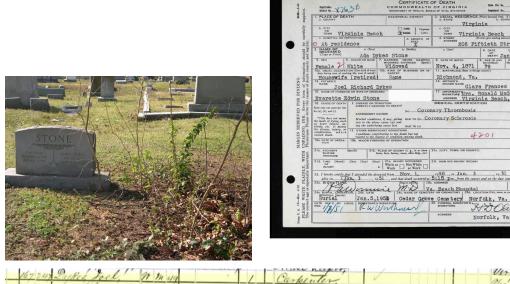

Additional Information: Robert N. Dyer was enlisted on March 15th, 1847 at the age of 23. He was the son of John D. and Mary E. N. Davis (or Dyer). After serving in the war, he received a Bounty Land Warrant from Captain Thrift, then married Alice before the year 1860. That same year, his occupation was listed as House Carpenter and he had been married to his second wife, Rebecca Travers, whom he married on October 8th, 1851, and had an eight year old daughter named Elizabeth, a six year old daughter named Alice, a three year old son named William, and a three month old daughter named Virginia. He served in the Civil War beginning on September 1st, 1862 in Pendleton County, West Virginia under McNeill's Rangers, which was a Confederate military unit. There, he served for a little over eight months. In that time, he had a daughter named Ida, born around 1865, who later died in June of 1887. He overall had three separate wives: Rebecca, and then Sarah Abbott. He married Sarah on September 26th, 1888. According to Off to War, Dyer died two years later on December 23rd, 1890, however, there are conflicting sources that say otherwise. For example, his grave says that he died on May 10th, 1895. It's not clear which date is more accurate. James W. West, who was in the same company as Robert Dyer described Dver as being about six feet tall; he had light hair, light complexion, and blue eyes; he had a crooked foot. Sarah Dyer died on April 29th, 1907.

Burial: Unknown

Plot: N/A

Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional Information: Patrick Gately enlisted on March 15th, 1847 at the age of 32. Off to War explains that this gentleman wrote a sweet poem to his wife during his time in Mexico, detailed below this description. After the war, he enlisted as a Marine aboard the U.S. Frigate Raritan, and worked as a scuttle-butt. However, he was discharged on August 21, 1851 because he was thrown against a gun and hurt his back. After his service, at about 70 years old, he abandoned his wife and child after "He had been on a terrible spree immediately previous for about two weeks...The last time I saw him about 28 years ago, he came home about 9 o'clock in the morning and changed his clothes. He was still intoxicated and I endeavored to get him to eat some Breakfast, but he positively refused. Without saying anything about where he was going or intended to do, he left the house at the back door went across the fields and disappeared from view." (Off to War). The poem Gately wrote for Mary Gately, though goes as follows:

"To my Mary,

I know my love you always loved, but never loved in vain My only pet you must not fret, I may return again So now my dear be of good cheer my words may yet come true No earthly store would keep me from my lovely boy and you.

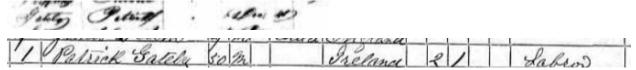

My only pet you must not fret with every breath you draw.

Your love would soon return if peace was proclaimed by law. Tho, in a foreign country his journey he's soon pursue And leave the trifling foe behind to meet his Johnny dear & you.

Johnny dear and darling whatever shall you do. Your mother is broken hearted, Boy, what shall become of you. Your father is in the battlefield away in Mexico. Where many a valiant heart has gone to face the daring foe.

My dear pay no attention to the base and slanderous crew. Who first said I went away to be rid of you. May God pour down his vengeance on the false and filthy crew. Who try's to plague my faithful wife when I am far from you.

My dear have better courage and do not be afraid."

Birth: 08/23/1825, Fairfax County VA Death: 05/20/1906, Fairfax County VA Burial: Unknown Plot: N/A Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: John R. Gunnell enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at Fairfax Court House at age 22. He was promoted to 2nd Corporal from 3rd Corporal, but lost his rank by sentence of a garrison court-martial on 10/22/1847. In 1850, he resided in Fairfax County and was a farmer. It should be noted that Gunnell did own slaves in the 1850's and into the 1860's. He had 6 siblings, but one in particular is important: James Lucien Gunnell. He was three years younger than John and in 1850, he married Catherine Virginia Swink. Catherine was only 14 years old when they wedded and just a year later (1851), she would give birth to their first son, William T. She then gave birth to Martha Ann in 1852, however, she only lived to be 1 year old. Catherine then had one more child in 1854: a son named George West. In 1866, James Lucien Gunnell would pass away and only 2 years later Catherine remarried to John R. Gunnell, James's older brother. They married on 9/27/1868. John served in the Civil War as a 2nd Lt. in Company G, 8th Virginia infantry. It is recorded that he had a stomach wound at Hatcher's Run on 3/31/1865 and was discharged on oath on 6/29/1865 from Petersburg Hospital. His obituary states "last surviving member of Thrift's Co. Birth: 1820 from Ireland Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Plot: N/A Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: William Hagan enlisted on March 1st, 1847, at the age of 28. Though William Hagan was enlisted for the war, he actually served the majority of his time as a teamster in the Quartermaster's Department, and was considered absent on detached service on and off from August 22, 1847 until around December 1847. A Bounty Land Warrant sent to Captain Thrift was sent to the care of William Hagan. In 1860, at the age of 40, the census listed his occupation as laborer. This could be him and his family in a census record in 1850, though Off to War does not list any spouses or children that William Hagan had. The birthdate and birthplace match.

Charles F. Haines himself never had children, and his location of death is unknown.

George Kerr

pg. 192

Birth: 1823 Death: Possibly 07/07/1893 Burial: Unknown Plot: N/A Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: George Kerr enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 24. A Bounty Land Warrant was sent to him in Washington, D.C. It is possible that George Kerr was an African American man, as there are some documents of a George Kerr in Lynchburg, Virginia that say that a "colored" laborer died of unknown causes on July 7, 1893. It is possible that this George Kerr married Mary Perry on June 4, 1874 in Rockbridge County, Virginia.

He was sent back to Fairfax County and became a laborer. Kitchen married his first wife Elizabeth Kidwell on November 17th, 1849 and continued living in Fairfax County until he married his second wife Sarah Ann Mills on 01/21/1853 in Georgetown D.C. He enlisted as a private for the Civil War in Company D, 40th Missouri Infantry Regiment. However, he came back without an index finger on his right hand; it was shot off in Spanish Fort, Alabama. This was reported in the month of April in 1865. After his discharge, he resided in St. Louis, MO and National Soldiers Home at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. He was buried at Bellfountaine Cemetery St. Louis, MO. However, currently no such cemetery is recorded in Findagrave. After Caleb died, Sarah filed a widow's claim on 6/11/1888 in Dranesville, Fairfax County, VA. She was born on 12/08/1834 and died on 4/27/1926. She is buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Suitland, Prince George's County, Maryland; it is possible that Caleb Kitchen

Additional information: Abner Jesse Lakenan enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 21. He went on to have seven recorded children, six of them being girls. He also, along with serving in the Mexican American War, was a Confederate private in Company E, Virginia 51st Militia Infantry Regiment during the Civil War. Unfortunately, Abner Lakenan and his son have both had their last names misspelled and mistranscribed numerous times, as it is misspelled in Off to War, and in multiple census records, marriage certificates, obituaries, death certificates, Civil War records, and in the Virginia Genealogist magazine at least once. According to an upload on Find a Grave, the person who uploaded Abner Lakenan's grave information alleges that the misspelling is likely due to "transcription error or misprint or misunderstanding by a census taker or clerk in recording the name and even by some distant family members."

Opie H. Lindsay

Birth: 12/08/1825 Death: 07/19/1899 Burial: Colesville Cemetery, Silver Spring, MD Plot:

Memorial ID: 165642985

Additional Information: Opie Lindsay enlisted in Alexandria, Virginia on March 16th, 1847. He later received a Bounty Land Warrant from Captain Thrift. He returned the following year to Fairfax County and became a laborer. Lindsay met a woman named Mary Elizabeth Gorham and they married on February 4th, 1851 in Washington D.C. They would have a total of 11 children together, but only 9 lived long: George (the eldest son), Mary F (the eldest daughter), Ann, John R, William (did not live long after birth), Martha, Josiah, Catharine, Caroline (did not live long after birth), Charles, and Sarah. In the 1870 census (below), the name James is listed, but in the 1880 census, James is replaced with John R. It can be assumed that James and John R. are the same person because their ages match up. For the rest of Lindsay's life, he was a farmer and continued to live in Montgomery County, MD.

James J. Mansell

Birth: About 1828 Death: Possibly 12/28/1901 Burial: (possibly) Greenwood Cemetery Pultney Township, Belmont County, Ohio, USA Plot: N/A Memorial ID: 148986948

Additional information: James J. Mansell enlisted on April 5th, 1847 from Brownsville, Pa. at the age of 19. There is no listed reason as to why he enlisted through Pennsylvania and why he was put in Company L if he was not a Virginian. It is possible that James Mansell served in the Civil War as well, considering that the grave pictured above, which lists the same name, says such. It is unknown if this is the correct grave, though, because Mansell traveled frequently and was likely an English immigrant, making his birthdate and other important information hard to find. He lived in Brownsville, PA., Cumberland, MD., Ohio, and possibly more locations.

John A. McDonald

pg. 213-214

Birth: 1828 Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: John A. McDonald enlisted at Rely House, VA, on April 2nd, 1847, at age 19. 7 months into his service, he was court-martialed on November 15th, 1847 in Buena Vista, Mexico. He received 4 charges total:

- 1. Unsoldierlike and Disorderly Conduct
- 2. Abusive language to his superior officer
- 3. Mutinous Conduct
- 4. Resisting Lawful Authority

On November 6th, 1847, he went onto the streets of Saltillo and began to swear and say that he did not give a damn about anybody. Additionally, he swore that he would be a good match for Sergt. Lewis B Philips, "a damned old son of a bitch", and that he would kill him. He refused to listen to anybody's orders and threatened to kill anybody that would touch him. He also threatened desertion. McDonald pleaded not guilty to charges 1, 2, and 4, but he did plead guilty to charge 3. He was confined to the Guard House in December 1848, and was very noisy and loud, cursing up a storm. It got to the point where he had to be tied up and beat. The court found him guilty of all charges and sentenced him to forfeit one month's pay. He also had to do hard labor with a ball and chain attached to his leg for 2 months. By April 1848, he became sick in hospital. Finally, he was sent back to Washington D.C., where he still received a Bounty Land Warrant despite his disorderly conduct.

James R. Millan

Birth: 02/06/1816 Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Fairfax Unknown Plot: N/A Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: James R. Millan was the son of George and Ann (DeBell) Millan. He enlisted on March 18th, 1847 at the age of 30 from Fort Washington Maryland. James R. Millan married Eliza Minerva Draper, and had a son named George. It is possible that James Millan served in the Civil War, but there is little information in that regard. In the 1850 census, James Millan did not claim an occupation in 1850. His wife died in 1856, as pictured above.

Armistead Thorton Mills

pg. 221

Birth: 07/22/1822 Death: 07/23/1892, Fairfax County, VA Burial: Fairfax cemetery, unmarked grave Plot:

Memorial ID: 203339698 (second wife's Findagrave)

Additional information: Armistead was born to Peter and Cynthia Mills. He enlisted at age 25 in Alexandria, VA on March 15th, 1847. On April 25th, 1848, he was absent on detached service as a Hospital Attendant by order of Colonel Hamtramck. Mills was given a Bounty Land Warrant and came back to Fairfax County, VA. His first marriage was to Elizabeth E. Germon (also spelled Jerman) on December 28th. 1850 in Washington D.C. His first daughter with Elizabeth was named Johanna and born in 1855. Elizabeth and Armistead were separated by 1860 and he remarried on 09/06/1870 to Cornelia Frances Gheen in Washington D.C. They would go on to have two sons together: Robert F. and Harry Holmes. On April 23rd, 1861, Armistead Mills voted for succession at the Fairfax County Courthouse. In the 1870 census, Mills was cited as being a wagon maker, and by 1880 his occupation was cited as wheelwright. In a survivor's claim from 1887, Armistead is described as 5 '11, black hair, gray eyes. He later died in 1892 due to consumption, or in today's terms, tuberculosis. He is buried in an unmarked grave at Fairfax Cemetery.

Additional information: Patterson enlisted at Ft. Washington on March 26th, 1847 at the age of 34. A Bounty Land Warrant was given to the care of Patterson from Captain Thrift. It is possible that Patterson was an African American who served in the war, as there are a few records from the Freedmen's Bureau that mention a Charles Patterson, though it is difficult to verify if the Freedmen's Bureau record is the same as the Private in the Mexican American War.

Thomas Ratcliffe

Birth: 1828 Death: 01/21/1899 Burial: Trinity United Methodist Church Cemetery King George, King George County, Virginia Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: 40539116

Additional information: Thomas Ratcliffe enlisted on March 24th, 1847 from Fort Washington, Maryland, at the age of 19. In October 1847, he was sentenced to forfeit $3.50 by sentence of garrison court-martial. Later, a Bounty Land Warrant was sent to him in Washington, D.C. It is plausible that Thomas Ratcliffe died on January 21st, 1899, as there is a grave in Findagrave that mentions a Thomas Maurice Ratcliffe, who was born on August 11th, 1829 in Charles County, Maryland and died on the aforementioned date. Charles County is adjacent to Prince George's County, and near the border of Fort Washington, where Private Thomas Ratcliffe enlisted for the Mexican American War.

George F. Richards

pg. 249

Birth: 08/23/1823 Death: 06/05/1904 Burial: Plot: Memorial ID:

Additional information: George F. Richards enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 22. In December of either 1845 or 1846, it is noted that at Jonathan McGarity's house, Richards accidentally fired a shotgun and heavily damaged his right hand. He also moved to Missouri and then Montana, and during his time in Missouri he lived on Cherokee Nation tribal land. His wife, Catherine Horseman was from "Indian Territory" in present-day Oklahoma, and therefore was very likely Cherokee herself.

Henry Claggett Richards pg. 250

Birth: 1828, Leesburg Loudoun County, VA Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information:Richards first enlisted into the Mexican War on 03/01/1847 at Fairfax Courthouse, VA at age 19. After the war, he was sent to Washington D.C. and then shortly enlisted into the U.S. Navy in 1850 at Norfolk, VA. He served on board Frigate U.S.S. Raritan for about 9 months and then went on an Amazon Exploring Expedition for about 18 months. He used the name Henry C. Richards for the Mexican War and his Navy travels before 1857. He reenlisted into the Navy under the name "Henry Clagett". He became an Ordinary Seaman and Seaman on Sloop of War U.S.S. Saratoga. He later was transferred to Ironclad U.S.S. Sangamon. In the month of September, 1863, Claggett was discharged from the Naval Hospital in Norfolk, VA. Two months later, he would enlist as a private into Company C 43rd Battalion VA Cavalry, AKA Mosby's Rangers. He was captured, presumably by Union soldiers, and was sent to Ft. Warren, Boston, MA. He was held there until the end of the Civil War. His physical description, listed in Off to War, was 5'6, light complexion, brown eyes, gray hair (1887).

Birth: 1819 Death: POSSIBLY 07/04/1864 Burial: POSSIBLY Arlington National Cemetery Plot: POSSIBLY Section 13 Site 5464 Memorial ID: POSSIBLY 35560575

Additional information: John Rose Richards is the brother of George F. Richards, a private who also served in the Mexican-American War. John Richards enlisted on April 1st, 1847 at the age of 27. His name was accidentally omitted on his last muster roll, but he still received a Bounty Land Warrant, which was sent to Washington, D.C. In 1850, he resided in Fairfax County and was a farmer. In the same census record, he was married to Mary A., had a son named Dulany M., and a daughter named Priscilla. There is a record that states John R. Richards's daughter lived in Custer, Montana (the same place his brother lived after marrying Catherine Horseman), and whose wife is listed as "Eleanor E. Guantt" and daughter "Priscilla Guantt Terrett." The record states that Priscilla died in 1929 due to cerebral hemorrhage. No other death information could be found on older members of the Richards family.

William Hamilton Robey

Birth: May 23, 1825, Moorefield, West Virginia Death: April 18, 1881, River Falls, Wisconsin Burial: Mount Zion Cemetery - River Falls, Pierce County, Wisconsin, USA Plot:

Memorial ID: 103979062

Additional information: William Robey was born in Moorefield, Hardy County, West Virginia. As a boy and young adult, he liked to travel and explore the eastern parts of the United States, particularly the mountains. At age 22, he enlisted for the Mexican American War on 03/16/1847 in Alexandria, Virginia. He was deemed unfit for war and was sent back the next year to Alexandria. In 1850, Robey married a woman who had his first son, in St. Louis Missouri. However, she fell ill and died only 1 year and 5 months into their marriage. In 1854, Robey married Nancy Brubaker Patterson and had 7 children together. He would then move in 1860 to Green County, Ohio and stay for 3 years. Next he would go to Wayne County, Indiana. Finally, he and his family moved to Pierce County, Wisconsin. After he moved to Wisconsin, he dedicated the rest of his life to Christ and preaching the gospel. He began to follow Christ in 1854 when he united with the Brethren while living in Hampshire County, West Virginia. On his deathbed, delirious, he still prayed. He died of Cancer on the face and passed away in River Falls, Wisconsin. Although he lived in many different places throughout his life, he ended up at one point in Alexandria for reasons that aren't very clear besides his love for adventure. One could guess that he didn't have any intention of settling in Virginia.

Samuel Sheckles

Birth: 1828 Death: 05/14/1900 Burial: Congressional Cemetery Washington, District of Columbia, District of Columbia, USA Plot: 136-237 Memorial ID: 49404174

Additional information: Samuel Sheckles enlisted on 03/01/1847 at the age of 19. After serving in the Mexican American War, Samuel Sheckles was admitted to the National Soldier's Home in Hampton, Virginia at only 49 years old because of "rheumatism and age." At the age of 70 in 1898, Sheckles was transferred to an insane asylum in Washington, D.C., with no reason for admission listed; however, the gravesite details on Find a Grave explain that he had senile dementia, which is very likely the reason behind his transfer to an asylum. According to the record of his headstone, which says on Ancestry that it was provided for deceased Union Civil War veterans, Samuel Sheckles also served as a Union soldier during the Civil War, and was able to do so because he claimed his bounty land grant in Washington, D.C.

Additional information: Stark enlisted on March 1st, 1847 from Fairfax County Courthouse at the age of 38. He received a Bounty Land Warrant, which was sent to Washington City, D.C. No other information was found on Stark; he may have gone under another name after/before serving.

John Waugh

Birth: 1821

Death: 08/22/1893

Burial: Presbyterian Cemetery, Darnestown, Maryland. (Listed in Off to War but no grave was found) Plot:

Memorial ID:

Additional information: John Waugh enlisted on March 8th, 1847 at the age of 26. He was described in Off to War as being five feet and seven inches tall, with brown hair, black eyes, and a "dark complexion," which could imply that he was African American. His occupation was listed as Ferryman in 1847 before he went on to serve in the Mexican American War. He married Emily Ponder in 1855, but she died in 1859, so then he went on to live with Miranda Lowe, another widow, until she died in 1879, and married Ellen V. Lowe on 9/18/1884. Ellen Waugh is buried in Darnestown, Maryland, and the details of her death are on Find a Grave. However, John Waugh's details cannot be found in this cemetery. Neither seem to have a marker here.

John T. Wright

Birth: 1815 Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: John T. Wright enlisted on March 16th, 1847, from Alexandria, Virginia, at the age of 32. From February 1848 until April of the same year he was absent from the war on furlough by order of Colonel Hamtramck and employed under Colonel March, who was a beef contractor. A Bounty Land Warrant was later sent to him to Washington D.C. Because of a lack of information on Findagrave, finding any information on Wright that is verifiably true is difficult. It is possible he had a wife named Sarah Young, whom he married on September 15th, 1834. However, the record of this is inaccessible beyond FamilySearch, so it is not possible to verify if this bit of information is true to the John T. Wright from Off to War. Below, however, is the citation of the record in the event that another person may be able to access it:

Mahlon Mills, Private

pg. 222

Birth: 1824 Death: 08/19/1847 Burial: Unknown Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown Additional information: Mahlon Mills was enlisted on March 15th, 1847 at the age of 23 from Alexandria, Virginia, but became sick in June 1847, then died two months later in Buena Vista, Mexico.

Robert Mills, Private

pg. 222

Birth: 1824 Death: 08/23/1847 Burial: Unknown Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown Additional information: Robert Mills enlisted on March 18th, 1847 from Fort Washington, Maryland at the age of 23. He later died that August in Buena Vista, Mexico.

Samuel Trott, Private

Birth: 1827 Death: 08/17/1847 Burial: Buena Vista, Mexico Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: Samuel Trott enlisted on March 15th, 1847 at the age of 20 from Fairfax Courthouse. He later died in action in Buena Vista, Mexico. It is believed that he may have been the son of Reverend Samuel and Elizabeth Jane (Williams) Trott of Fairfax Station, Virginia. There is a memorial that honors those who fought in the Battle of Buena Vista, an extremely bloody battle that ended in victory for America. However, it is unlikely that Trott has a marked grave for his death, since the Mexican American War resulted in many deaths that America did not have the manpower nor ability to take home.

Charles West, Private

Birth: 1815 Death: 08/06/1847 Burial: Buena Vista, Mexico Plot: Unknown Memorial ID: Unknown

Additional information: Charles West enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the age of 32 from Fairfax Courthouse. He died in action in Buena Vista, Mexico. There is a memorial that honors those who fought in the Battle of Buena Vista, an extremely bloody battle that ended in victory for America. However, it is unlikely that Charles West has a marked grave for his death, since the Mexican American War resulted in many deaths that America did not have the manpower nor ability to take home.

Richard Young, 2nd Lieutenant pg. 318

Birth: 1818 (listed as 1817 in Findagrave)
Death: 07/09/1850
Burial: Bethel Regular Baptist Church, Great Falls, VA.
Plot: N/A
Memorial ID: 145107149
Additional information: Young enlisted on March 1st, 1847 from Fairfax Courthouse at the age of 29. He was originally a Third Sergeant, then promoted to Second Lieutenant at an unknown date. He then resigned on October 31st, 1847, serving for only seven total months. He died "at his mother's" on July 9th, 1850 at the age of 33.

John B. F. Barnard

Birth: 1821 Death: 12/21/1875 Burial: Greenbush Cemetery, East Greenbush, Rensselaer County, New York, USA Plot:N/A Memorial ID: 111939435

Additional information: John B.F. Barnard enlisted at an unknown date and his place of enlistment is also unknown. However, he was discharged on August 30, 1847 from a surgeon's certificate, and was married to Abby Sibley by October 20, 1847 in Danielsonville, Connecticut. After the war, Barnard resided in Greenbush, Rensselaer County, New York. There, his occupation was listed as an "express agent," which was an esteemed courier capable of processing and handling important, extremely valuable documents and items. His daughter, Caroline M.F. was born in Maine circa 1851, and son George S. was born circa 1853. Interestingly, John Barnard is buried with Abby, his wife, along with his daughter, Caroline, and two sons: Charles M. Barnard, and Edward L. Barnard, but no George Barnard.

John A. Bennett, Private

pg. 71

Birth: 1813 Death: Unknown Burial: Unknown Plot: N/A Memorial ID: Unknown Additional information: Bennett enlisted on March 18th, 1847 at Fort Washington at the age of 34. He was discharged only 49 days later on April 29th, 1847. The order for discharge came from an adjutant general.

Thomas Berrypg. 72

Birth: 1831

Death: Possibly 06/11/1879

Burial: Possibly Henrico County, Virginia Plot:

Memorial ID:

Additional information: Thomas Berry was enlisted on March 1st, 1847 at the young age of 16 at the Fairfax Courthouse (however, Off to War mentions that he was 19 when he was enlisted, meaning that Berry had to have faked his age to serve in the war). On March 24, 1847, Berry was discharged by order of the adjutant general. It is likely that the Adjutant General discharged Thomas Berry because he learned that he faked his age to get into the war. By 1850, his occupation was listed as ship carpenter, then cooper in 1860, and back to ship carpenter in 1870. His mother was Elizabeth Silmone Berry, and his father was Thomas Berry. He may have had a sister named Margaret as well. It is possible that Thomas Berry was Black.

He was described as being "five feet, four and a half inches tall, dark complexion, blue eyes, and dark hair." His occupation was recorded as being a carpenter. It is possible that James J. Conroy was from Ireland and married Elizabeth Conroy. The couple had six children in the 1870 census: James W. (14, and possibly went by William as that is listed as the Conroy's only son in 1860), Martha (11), Mary (8), Lawrence (5), Francis (3), and Agnes (1).

The image above could be his grave.

James C. Deneal

pg. 115

Birth: 10/05/1825 Death: 03/24/1906 Burial: Walnut Corner Cemetery, Danville, Vermilion County, Illinois. Plot: N/A Memorial ID: 33722010

Deneal later married Elizabeth McGranahan's sister, Harriet McGranahan on December 15th, 1859 in Vermilion County, Illinois. At the age of 55 in 1880, Deneal was listed as being sick from being "billious," which at the time likely referred to having a bad temper, but could potentially mean he was nauseous or vomited frequently. In the 1880 census, James C. Deneal had five children: David (18), Samuel (16), Walter (9), Austin (6), and Harry (7 months). In 1906, James Deneal died of "nephritis," which is kidney inflammation.
